I think aloue of thee. They tell me time is fleeting, And youth will soon be o'er; They bid me seize the present, And nurse the past no more;

They point me to the future-"So lone as it must be"-They know not that my spirit Is linked for aye to thee.

They cannot cannot move me, My purpose is my own; To outward eyes it may be I walk the world alone ; My inward world is peopled With thoughts and feeling tree; And life can ne'er be lonely

While I may think of thee.

LADY MARY BY HENRY ALFORD. Thou wert fair, Lady Mary, As the lily in the sun ; And fairer yet thou mightest be , Thy youth was but begun;

Thine eye was soft and glancing, Of the deep bright blue, And on the heart thy gentle words Fell lighter than the dew. They found thee, Lady Mary,

With thy palms upon thy breast, Even as thou hadst been praying, At thine hour of rest. The cold pale moon was skining On thy cold pale cheek, And the morn of Nativity Had just began to break.

They carved thee, Lady Mary, All of pure white stone. With thy palms upon thy breast, In the chancel all alone; And I saw thee when the Winter Moon Shone on the marble cheek. When the morn of the Nativity Had just began to break.

We shall see thee, Lady Mary, On that shore unknown; A pure and happy angel, In the presence of the throne : We shall see thee when the light divine Plays freshly on thy cheek, Has just began to break.

FOR THE NASHVILLE UNION.

Mr. Epiron:-The suggestion which has been made to nominate Joseph G. Pickett, Esq., of Smith, meets my cordial and unqualified approba-Haskell will be the whig candidate, and I am well assured that there is no man in the State, whig or democrat, who has heard them on the stump, but who believes that in that event Mr. Pickett is by long odds the strongest man we can start. It is true he is a much younger man than has generally been called to the standard, but what he lacks in years is amply made up by the strength of his intellect and splendor and brilliancy of his eloquence. Those who know him intimately are well satisfied. with due deference to other gentlemen who have been named in connection with the nomination, that there is not a better read politician in the State. There is a warm and genial glow in his manner before the people that wins all hearts. Let Pickett be the nominee, and his clarion voice will arouse an enthusiasm in the hearts of the young democracy, the active elements of our organization, which will bear down all opposition.

Let us have the race between Haskell and Pickett, and as sure asothe sun rises upon the first Thursday in August, Old Smith's gallant and gifted boy will come through the contest, as he has ever recommending Commodore Stockton for the Cabidone, bearing the trophics of a decided and glorious net.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION-ARISTA'S LETTER OF RESIGNATION-BLOODY BATTLES.

The Trait d'Union, of the 8th inst., publishes Gen. Arista's letter to Arriaga, Minister of Justice. explaining the motives of his resignation.

The following is Aritsa's letter to Arriaga: After the interview we had last evening, I was informed that in the faubourgs of the city and some of its distant quarters, jassemblages of the people were being prepared who were to take my name as a signal in order to prevent Congress from accepting my resignation and to proclaim me invested with full and absolute power. This information was confirmed during the night from several sources. I thought of the terrible consequences which such a disorderly movement (that I am firmly resolved to prevent,) would entail on the good, p caceful part of the population. I thought of the task that would fall upon the Liberal party and myself if we countenanced this disorder, and I determined to take the only course that could avoid so grave a conflict: that is, not to prolong the anxiety of the population, and to prevent, by my resignation and departure this very day, the agitation of parties, and a movement of which no one could tell

The attack made by Gen. Minon on Guadalaja though very spirited, was without other results than the effusion on both sides of a great deal of blood. Fifty pieces of artillery played from each army during the space of two hours.

This was followed by a sortie from the city by Gen. Blanearte. One of the columns of Minon sent to arrest its progress, was completely defeated with a loss of three hundred killed and wounded. A second sortie from the city, following half of Minon's troops to San Pedro and attacking the other half at Hospicio, defeated both corps entirely. The survivors dispersed. The events of the 6th in the city of Mexico are thus described by the Siglo Diezy Nueve:-The events of vesterday which have created a new Constitutional Government are of such great importance that we proceed at once to give a detailed account of them, as an exact knowledge of it that the California papers are silent. them will have a great influence on public opinion throughout the country.

On the morning of the 5th, Don Juan B. Ceballos assumed the Executive power in accordance with the constitution, and the city feared a tumult which might endanger the rights of property and the beginning of an endless anarchy. All kinds of meetings were talked of sinister rumors were circulated, and even officers were named as supposed chiefs of tumults. Early in the morning a printed proclamation was posted throughout the city an-nouncing that the President had resigned the Government to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and that he had accepted the same.

This preclamation restored tranquility in some degree, as it was seen that public order had not been disturbed, and that the constitution was respected. The President elect was Governor of Michoacan. the affairs of which State he reorganized in a short time. As President of the Supreme Court he has displayed great integrity and has defended the constitution with energy and courage, and protested against the law of 21st September last, restraining the liberty of the press, The Siglo says:

The new Government is disposed to liberate all persons accused of conspiracy now in confine-Alarming rumors are continually in circulation, and it is said that attempts at rebellion have been made in some of the barracks. The famous Camanche chief Bajo el Sol has been killed in a battle with the Apaches. Several of the Camanches have requested the citizens of San Carols (Chihuahua) to join them in war upon the

TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 8.

PRESIDENT POLK'S RETIREMENT FROM WASH-INGTON-LETTER FROM PRESIDENT FILLMORE. The following letter from President Fillmore to a gentleman in New York, finally disposes of an absurd imputation against the late President, which has obtained some currency:

Washington, Jan. 22, 1853. My dear Sir :- Your note of yesterday came to hand this morning, and I hasten to do justice to a political opponent, who is now in his grave. You say that it was stated in your presence, that President Polk was heartless and cold, and that one of his coldest acts was, that he vacated the White House several days before the President elect came to Washington, for fear of opening his heart, so as to ask him to his house and table. It is due to Mr. Polk, to say that I know this to be untrue. Gen. Taylor and myself were both invited to dine with him, and did dine with him before he left the White House, and I have no doubt all the civilities ordinarily extended to the incoming administration, were extended by President Polk to General Taylor, and according to my recollection, he did not leave the White House till the 4th, or rather the 5th of March, which was Monday .-The confusion incident to the close of a session of Congress, and the breaking up of house-keeping by the President's family, must necessarily prevent any President from doing more than Mr. Polk did in the case of Gen. Taylor, and if I am rightly informed, many of his pred cessors did not do as much.

I am, respectfully, yours,
MILLARD FILLMORE.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW YORK HERALD. AFFAIRS IN WASHINGTON. Interesting to Texas Creditors-Items about General Pierce and his Cabinet, etc.

Washington, Jan. 29-9½ P. M. It is intended to call up, on Monday, in the Sen ate, the bill for the relief of the Texas creditors. It is hoped—as the friends of the bill have already given way to Mr. Gwinn's Pacific railroad measure on several occasions-that no opposition will be offered by that gentleman to calling up the Texas bill now. A proper harmony will thus be preserved on all sides. Mr. Pearce will deliver an interesting speech on the subject, and show that all the creditors ask is that the United States shall now pay them the same amount, which will accumulate as interest on the five millions now in the Treasury, to the credit of the bondholders, if that interest be let run for ten years, which it must do if the bondholders see fit to hold out. As we have a surplus on hand, and do not want to use the money, and thus pay interest upon, there is an additional argument in favor of justice being done the creditors, and the claim thus forever put at rest.

The cabinet rumor about Mr. Buchanan probably arose from the fact that that gentleman has been using, it is said, every exertion to press the pretensions of Judge Campbell, of Pennsylvania, for a cabinet appointment. Mr. Forney, and other original friends of Mr. Buchanan, are indignant at this preference for a new love, and already threaten dire revenge if it be persisted in. The eraculous givings out of the Concord letter writers, are a good deal laughed at here. The last ideal from there, is that General Pierce, will not seek advice of any one in Washington as to his cabine tion. It is now generally understood that Gen. Of course General Pierce is not responsible for such nonsense, for he is aware that some of the most distinguished Presidents have had to materially change their views as to their cabinet after arriving here, although it was all cut and dried beforehand. It has been stated, in various quarters, that in case any number of democratic Senators should be discontented at any of the cabinet or other nominaions, the whig Senators would gladly unite with them in rejecting such obnoxious individuals. To all this, it need only be said the whigs intend doing no such thing, but have determined to vote for all ominations sent in, so long as the individuals are of oper moral character. Disorganizers will, thereore, have to look elsewhere for comfort. x. Y. Z.

Hox. A. O. P. Nicholson. - The prominence which has been given to the name of this eminent Tennessean in all cabinet speculations, is at once a compliment to his splendid abilities, and an acknowledgment of his distinguished services for the democratic party. His appointment to a position in the cabinet would be very warmly approved where he is known, and we believe it would prove of great advantage to the administration. For sound discriminating judgment, facility in seizing the points in any subject presented to his consideration, and clearness and logical force in the expression of his ideas, Mr. Nicholson has few superiors. Caution, prudence, moderation united with talents of a very high order, are the characteristics of Mr. N., and they are just such qualities as Gen. Pierce will find use for in his administration. ONE OF THE JERRY RESCUERS CONVICTED .- The New York Herald of the 31st ult., says:

Enoch Reed, the colored man whose case has Court at Albany during the past week, was yester- in the discharge of their duties in attention to the day morning declared guilty of assisting in the rescue of the fugitive slave Jerry, from the officers who had him in charge at Syracuse. Notwithstanding the combined efforts of the abolitionists of this and other States, headed by Gerrit Smith, to save Reed and his coadjutors from punishment-and although they succeeded in staving off the trials until excite ment upon the subject had entirely died away, except among themselves-the national constitution and the Congressional compromises of 1850 have, in this instance, been fully sustained by an enlightened and impartial jury. This is a glorious triumph of the laws of the land over those agitators who would set them at defiance. It is a triumph of the principles of justice over fanaticism, that will be appreciated by the masses of the country, and one that will be of infinite service in restoring that good feeling with our Southern brethren, which for a time had been disturbed by the groundless insinuations emanating from rival States and cities.

GEN. PIERCE'S CARRIAGE.-To the elegant carriage already announced as having been manufactured at Pittsfield Mass., for the President elect, the presentors have now added a fine pair of bay horses, which they procured for $800. The carriage and horses are to be sent to Washington in a short time.

LOUIS NAPOLEAN LABORING UNDER A DANGEROUS DISEASE. - The Paris correspondent of the New York Herald writes as follows, under date of the 13th

Politics are dull in Paris, and the only capital point of the gossip is the disease which is threateng the life of Louis Napoleon, and which has caused much anxiety among his friends and partisans within the last two weeks. The Emperor has had several attacks of this complaint within the above-mentioned period, and suffered a great deal. The physicians who attend him, and particularly Dr. nneau, entertain much fear of this unforeseen evil, and no one can tell what will be the immediate or delayed result of Louis Napoleon's sickness,-Despite the intolerable sufferings to which the Emperor has been subject, he has not ceased one day to appear in public, to meet with his ministers, and to go to the operas and theatres in the evening .-But, nevertheless, the face of Louis Napoleon betrays the sufferings of his body, and though I was somewhat accustomed to his appearance and to know the paleness of his complexion, I was par- JL Baker, Sr, ticularly struck with it last night, at the grand ball given at the Tuilleries, where the Emperor appeared like a phantom, the face as pale as that of a corpse, and having the resemblance of a wax fgure. In a case before Judge Campbell, of New York, a few days since, where a person claimed damages for an alleged assault and battery, his honor justly charged the jury that working men have a perfect right to combine or unite to obtain an increase of wages; but they have no right to go any further. They must not go from shop to shop to intimidate others, or induce them to quit work; and any employer on whose premises they enter has a right to put them out by force, if necessary, using no more than may be required.

LIFE'S CHANGES .- Mr. Seward, in urging upon the attention of the Senate a private claim, said the petitioner was once a merchant, a great merchant, a man of wealth—that he had been reduced, by an unjust prosecution of the Government of the United States, to want, and was, while soliciting relief, engaged as a day laborer in the building of the Capitol. Mr. Seward's statement so affected the Senate, that the bill for his relief passed without a vote in the negative.

TWO NEGROES FROZEN TO DEATH.

Mr. Editor:-Late this evening a message was sent to me, that a raft of cedar timber had lodged on the head of Gower's Island, above this city, having on it three negro men-two of them were frozen to death, the other was taken off, and had so recovered from his chill that he was able to talk when my informant left him. He said his name was George, and he belonged to John W. Walker, on Stone's River, twenty-five miles from Nashville; and one of those that were frozen was his fellow servant, by the name of Henry: the other's name was Sam Holder, the owner of the raft. George said that a white man was on the raft with them, but he jumped off the raft, on a boat, having no bottom. He does not know what became of him. Feb. 6th, 1853. JOHN CORBITT, Coroner.

The apparent reduction in our receipts was caused by the withdrawal of three Agencies during the year. Our business at home and at our three remaining Agencies is evidently rapidly increasing.

The Board have this day declared a dividend of 6 per cent on the "Accumulated Capital" payable to the holders of scrip on demand; also a dividend of 15 per cent on the earned premiums up to and inclusive of the 31st day of December last, for which scrip will be issued as heretofore. The annual election for nine Trustees and three Inspec-tors of the next election will be holden at the office of the Company, on Tuesday, the 8th proxime. Each $50 of accumulated script, and each $50 of unexpired premiums—also, each a share of "Guaranty Capital" will entitle the holder to one vote.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

The Gazette has an article on labor. Our original neighbor fully proves that labor is as necessary to man's happiness as it is to his usefulness and prosperity. This is a truism which has been asserted. for the last five thousand years, and perhaps even a longer time. It can be proved from the very elements of our physical and mental organization. It is embedied in that clause of inspiration which says that man shall live by the sweat of his brow. Every body knew it before the Gazette had an existence. We would advise our neighbor that the object and end of journalism is to give the public ideas and facts, and not to repeat stale truisms or dress up homilies the world knows by heart. The Gazette also honors us with a special notice. The charges against us are "the assumption of patronizing airs to our city cotemporaries" and a "self complacent style." We are not aware of assuming "airs" of any sort, though it is extremely probable that the very interesting gentlemen we have flayed so regard our conduct. But we can't help that. It is their fault, and not ours. As for our "style" we adapt that to the occasion. It is true that our seutences are not as Johnsonian as those of our neighbor, but then we pretty generally convey our meaning, and most carefully endeavor to avoid having no meaning at all, which last caution we would kindly recommend to our neighbor of the Gazette. He will find the observance of this caution extremely useful. A man who expresses his own meaning will always find others who sympathize with it.-The man who merely repeats old truths unapplied rarely is read twice. People naturally like to add. to their stock of ideas, not to rehearse a part with which they are familiar Our neighbor is yet in the bud. He has not blossomed. He has elements, which properly developed, will win him character. We intend to "train" him, and if at times he thinks the discipline hard, we beg him to reflect that such is the universal complaint of untrained animals.

The Banner has an article in reply to the American. Our neighbor's object seems to be the revalaping of every charge ever made against the democratic party. He has gone into the vault of buried roorbacks and attempted their galvanism .-He will excuse us from following him into the "Toombs." The odor is not pleasant.

The True Whig has an article on the Garay Grant. Our neighbor is determined to show off his learning. He talks of the Garay Grant as volubly as if he understood it, and hesitates not to publish extracts from the Republic, duly credited to that interesting sheet. He also alludes to the Union. This is a propensity with whig papers. The Union haunts them day and night. It is their evil spirit, and they are always bedeviling it. Watchmen are not more vociferously opposed by street rowdies than is the Union by whig papers. In their estimation the Union is some terrible machine, filled with combustible matter, and ready to explode against the interests of the country. Why will "the heathen rage?" Why will the wicked take counsel. against the righteous? It will do no good. They are sure to fall in the pit they dig for others.

We call attention to the advertisement in another column of the "Premium Pump." Our citizens who feel an interest in the mechanical progress of the age should call at the Union Hall and see this invention. They will find Mr. Jeffries, oneof the proprietors, present, who will take pleasure in exhibiting it, and explaining its superior advantages. We shall notice this invention more at length. at another time.

BRITISH ELOQUENCE

W. T. BERRY & CO. have just received-SELECT BRITISH ELOQUENCE-Embracing the best Speeches entire of the most eminent Orators of Great Britain for the last two centuries; with Sketches of their Lives; an Estimate of their Genius, and Note, Critical and Explanatory. By Chauncey A. Goodrich, D.D. Professor in Yale College. In one large octavo volume.

In this carefully prepared volume, we have an important contribution to rhetorical literature. Containing the speeches of the great British orators which are regarded as the master pieces of their respective authors-a memoir of each orator, showing the leading events of his public life, and the distinctive characteristics of his oratory-an historical introduction to each of his speeches, explaining the circumstances of the case, the states of the parties and the exact point at issue-an analysis of the longer speeches in side notes -and a large body of critical and explanatory notes, together with translations of the passages quoted from foreign languages, it leaves nothing to be desired as a text book of the political and forensic eloquence of Great Britain. The copious and valuable memoirs and notices by the editor, makes this less a compilation than an original work. The manner in which he has performed his task is a model of accurate and thorough aditorship. He has omitted nothing which the most exacting student could demand for the elucidation of the subjected in hand, without ever being tempted to include in superfluous details. A great mass of attractive information is thus presented, and in a style of singular clearness, strength and elegance. It is rarely that such profound scholarship, sound judgment, refined taste and vigorous expression, are devoted to the critical preparation for the press of the standard production of other writers.

W. T. B. & Co. have also just received-HARPER'S MAGAZINE, 5 vols, cloth.
